

FLOSS Rule Word List

To help you understand and teach the Floss Rule better, here's a list of common one-syllable words that follow this spelling pattern. These words have a short vowel sound and end with the letters f, l, s, or z, where the final consonant is doubled. Using these examples, students can practice recognizing and applying the rule in their reading and writing.

FF Words

puff

sniff

cliff

huff

off

cuff

stuff

bluff

sniff

gruff

LL Words

bell

sell

fill

will

hill

drill

spill

chill

still

yell

SS Words

mess

pass

kiss

class

miss

dress

toss

boss

guess

press

ZZ Words

buzz

fizz

fuzz

jazz